Dear customer!

On 31 May, Norway Post issued this year's Europa stamp, which has the theme of underwater flora and fauna. A spectacular photo of a harbour seal "playing" with a jellyfish adorns the stamp. The photo was taken by the award-winning nature photographer Audun Rikardsen.

A separate stamp with the same theme was issued in a miniature sheet for the stamp exhibition Nordia 2024. Norway Post's own designer Julie Olsen designed both the stamps and the miniature sheet.

Summer festivals was the theme of the stamp issue on 1 June. Almost no country has as many festivals as Norway, and four music festivals have been selected to adorn the stamps. Camilla Kvien Jensen is the designer behind the stamps.

We wish our readers a good summer!
